FIG. 3A

A text-based representation of the registration form. It starts with the title "Registration Form", followed by ">> Name Section" and a dashed line. Below the line is the text "Hello". Then, "Your Name:" is followed by a black box containing white angle brackets "<>". Another dashed line follows. At the bottom, the words "Send" and "Reset" are listed, each preceded by an underline character.
